

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 3A

PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER
21 MARCH 1979

National and International News in Brief

NOTES:

Stansfield Turner, the director of the Central Intelligence Agency, has welcomed a bill that would imprison past or present CIA employees for up to 10 years if found guilty of disclosing the identities of U. S. intelligence officers, Sen. Lloyd Bentsen (D, Tex.) said.